Thank you for participating in the ASSC-15 Poster Competition as one of our judges.

Your session: 1030 – 1230, June 11

Your category: Philosophy

Posters to be judged:

Goal: Select the best student poster in your category and session

Judging Criteria:

1. Content
   a. Is the research a valuable contribution to the field?
   b. Are the aims clearly stated? Are the conclusions well supported by evidence or argument?
   c. Is it well researched? Are the references used to support the presentation accurate?

2. Originality
   a. Are the ideas novel and insightful?
   b. Does it engage creatively with the issues?
   c. Are there interesting applications or implications of the research in the field?

3. Presentation
   a. Does the poster attract viewer attention? Is it aesthetically appealing? (eg appropriate font size, layout, etc).
   b. Is it well organized?
   c. If there are illustrations or graphs, are they of good technical quality? Do they clearly illustrate the relevant point?

For winning poster only, please answer the following four questions:

1. What most impressed you about the posters’ content?

2. What is the author’s most original research contribution?

3. What most impressed you about the presentation?

4. Any other comments (optional):

Please submit the form to Adrienne Prettyman or Kingson Man after assessment